

DEFINITIONS, DISCLOSURE AND FRAUD ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Your household is required to disclose all members, income, and assets.

HOUSEHOLD MEMBER: A Household member is defined as someone who lives in the unit. A Household member cannot prove residence elsewhere.

INCOME: Income, gifts, or payments made on behalf of the household received or available within the last 12 months (even if the money or payment was received only one time) or anticipated to be received in the next 12 months.

INCOME, includes but is not limited to:

- ❖ Loans
- ❖ Employment, wages
- ❖ Payments to family members from a Consumer Directed Community Support grant
- ❖ Unemployment
- ❖ Child Support—either from a parent or other party
- ❖ County Assistance - MFIP, Housing Grant, MN Supplement Aid (MSA) General Assistance (GA)
- ❖ Retirement benefits, Pension, Social Security
- ❖ Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- ❖ Money given, borrowed or loaned directly or indirectly to a household member
- ❖ Someone outside the household pays a bill or household expense for a household member
- ❖ Work for cash such as:
 - Mowing lawns
 - Repairing or selling items such as vehicles, computers, clothing, sewing, etc.
 - Providing services for individuals such as childcare, cleaning, shopping, hair care/styling and other services
 - Handyman work (carpentry, constructions, painting, sheet-rocking, etc.)
 - Uber, Lyft, truck driving or other transportation services
 - Blood/plasma donations, recycling, gambling winnings

ASSETS include but are not limited to:

- ❖ All bank accounts.
- ❖ Money, property, trusts or other asset held on behalf of a household member by any other person
- ❖ Gold, silver, diamonds, gems, or other precious metals
- ❖ Money, property, trusts, investments, savings bonds, money markets, annuities, life insurance held by a household member
- ❖ Property (land, buildings, etc.) in or out of the United States.

The signature(s) below indicates that I/We was/were informed that I/We are required to disclose all household members and income, money and assets for the household. I/We have been given examples of income, money and assets in addition to those listed on the Washington County CDA recertification.

Failure to disclose all household members, income, money, payments, bank accounts or asset sources at the recertification is considered fraud and my application will be denied for fraud, or my housing assistance will be terminated for fraud. People who are terminated for fraud are not eligible for housing assistance for three years from the date of termination of denial.

(Name)

(Date)

(Name)

(Date)

(Name)

(Date)

(Name)

(Date)